

International Student Refund Policy and Procedure

SCOPE

1. This policy covers the refunds process for all fees payable for training services provided within OIC scope of registration, in accordance with National Code 2007 and ESOS Act for international students.

PURPOSE:

2. To provide for appropriate handling of student's payments and to facilitate refunds in the case of cancellation by either party. The refunds process will allow international (Overseas) students the option to disengage from training in a manner in which a negative impact may be negated or reduced, depending upon the notification time frame. The term "Overseas Student" includes an intending overseas/international student.
3. Unless otherwise stated, all refunds of fees will only be granted in accordance with this policy. The terms and conditions of this policy apply to all students, whether they are waiting to commence or are continuing studies.

Course variation fee:	This fee is applied if a student wishes to change the start date of the course after issuance of the Confirmation of Enrolment or if the student wishes to suspend their studies for a period of time.
Provider default:	In the unlikely event that the College is unable to deliver your course in full, you will be offered a refund of all the unused tuition fees paid to date. The refund will be paid within 14 working days of the day on which the course ceased being provided. Alternatively, you may be offered enrolment in a suitable alternative course by the College at no extra cost to you. Students have the right to choose whether they prefer a full refund of course fees, or to accept a place in another course.

	If you choose placement in another suitable course, we will ask you to sign a document to indicate that you accept the placement. If the College is unable to provide a refund or place you in an alternative course our Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is provided.
Student default	If a student withdraws from a course or has their enrolment cancelled by the college (e.g. for not maintaining satisfactory course progress, breaching the OIC Code of conduct, not paying fees, any other conditions as per the ESOS Act).

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS):

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either:

- complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees

In the unlikely event that Orange International College is unable to deliver your course in full, you will be offered a refund of all course money you have paid to date or alternately, Orange International College will offer you the opportunity of studying in an alternative course at no extra cost to you. Students may choose preferred option.

Students will be required to sign an agreement outlining preferred options co-signed by the CEO.

Should students choose the refund option; the refund will be paid no later than 20 working days of the day on which the course ceased being provided.

If Orange International College is unable to provide a refund or place you in an alternative course our Tuition Protection Service (TPS) will place you in a suitable alternative course at no extra cost to you.

Finally, if you cannot be placed in a suitable alternative course, the Secretary of the Tuition Protection Services will attempt to place you in a suitable alternative course or, if this is not possible, you will be eligible for a refund as calculated by the Secretary of the Tuition Protection Services.
